November Outreach Partner: CPT/Y-Haven Theater Project: Cleveland Public Theatre's Education Department and the Cleveland YMCA's Y-Haven Program present "Outside the Mirror." The Y-Haven Theatre Project is a 20-year partnership between Cleveland Public Theatre and Y-Haven, a transitional housing facility for formerly homeless men recovering from substance abuse and mental health challenges. Every year, CPT collaborates with the clients of Y-Haven to create an original theatre production, performed by the men and based on their life stories. The Y-Haven Theatre Project captures an authenticity and emotional power as the cast shares their true-to-life experiences often hidden from the world. Join us for Outside the Mirror, on November 18th at Lakewood Congregational Church at 2:00 p.m. All are welcome.

Share the Blessings: Thank you, thank you! All of our children have been sponsored. Thank you for your generosity. If you did not “get” a child, but still want to participate, cash donations are accepted. Please mark “Share the Blessings” in the memo line on your check or mark it on your envelope.

All gifts are due TODAY, November 25th. Please drop them off in the church office or with Jennifer. As always, we are humbled by the gift of your time, resources and compassion for this Project. Thank you for all that you do to make this Project so successful each and every year. Please feel free to contact Jennifer Williams (jjwilliamsjen@gmail.com or 216-533-6036) with any questions or comments.

Community Meal: Brrrr, cold weather is coming and once again the community meal staff would like to ask for donations of hats and gloves to give to our guests at the December meal. There will be a donation box in the back of the church. Thanks in advance for donating.

Intergenerational Advent Event is Sunday, December 2nd in-between the 8am and 10am Services. Please join us as we get messy with God.

Making things together - even simply making a mess together - can be one way in which God's kingdom explodes into life in a church, a community, an individual or a family. We're not just gluing and sticking: we're reflecting the God who creates and recreates and gives us the chance to be more fully human as we mirror his actions. Just as God wasn't afraid to get his hands into the stuff of the earth, touch swaddling clothes, skin, straw, smell frankincense and myrrh, taste milk and bread, the act of making things gives people a chance to get their hands too into the stuff of the earth, to give their senses a feast, to savor what is good, to feel real things in a screen-based world.

This Special Sunday will begin our first of three opportunities to get MESSY with God. Through these three Messy Church sessions, we will help 21st century folks own the eternal messages of Christmas for themselves so that seasonal tensions, sentimentality and material pleasures have a chance to fall into a better perspective. Stay tuned for more.

St. Cecilia's Guild: The annual Christmas luncheon is on Wednesday, December 19 at the Clifton Club. Your check for $30 to Joanne Calkins will be your reservation. RSVPs due by December 14th. If you have questions call or email Lorna Jordan. 440-455-1603

The Vestry is Seeking a Few Good Folks: The Saint Peter's Nominating Committee is seeking a total of four adults and one youth to stand for election to Vestry at the January Annual Meeting. If you feel called to serve, or if you would like to nominate a particular person, please contact a member of the committee. Persons elected must attend a monthly meeting

(third Mondays), help lead one of our ministry leadership teams, attend a Vestry retreat in February (Friday – Saturday), and otherwise take a place in the overall spiritual and temporal leadership of the parish. The next few years promise to be exciting and demanding. The term of office is three years for adult Vestry members and one year for youth members
