Everything you need for worship can be accessed at

Welcome to St. Peter's! If you are attending services, please use the back glass door off the parking lot (where the elevator is located) or the front door to enter the church. At this time, the other two entrances will remain locked. If you need any assistance, please see one of the ushers or Tom Newman, St. Peter's Sexton. Masks are required in building at all times. Thank you for your cooperation.

To be more inclusive of our Parishioners who attend the 10 am service via Livestream, we are going to dispense with showing the stained-glass window during communion in favor of showing the distribution of the sacrament of communion in the middle aisle.

This means if you receive communion in the center aisle your image will be shown walking to communion and receiving the sacrament. By receiving communion in the center aisle, you will be deemed to have consented to your image being shown on the Livestream.

If you do not want your image to be shown, you will have the option of receiving communion in the right aisle (facing the altar), which is out of the screenshot of the Livestream. Communion in the right aisle will take place after distribution of communion in the middle aisle.

Lenten Retreat open to all

I invite you to take “A Few Steps into the Interior Castle of Teresa of Avila”.

Teresa of Avila was born in 1515 in Spain. She became a Carmelite nun, reformed the Carmelite order, wrote many books and was named a Doctor of the Church, a title given to outstanding theological teachers. One of the books she wrote is called, “The Interior Castle” which tells the story of the soul's progression in prayer and relationship with God. You will be given the opportunity to explore some of her writing, and reflect on your own life and spiritual journey.

Please let me or the office know that you would like to attend by Monday March 14 at the latest, so we know how many to prepare lunch for.

Lent is a time to consider what we value most in life, which relationships with others sustain us and what feeds our spiritual life. Are we able to find balance in our lives? How can we build a framework to support the flourishing of our whole being? Beginning March 13 and until April 3, we will gather in the Oratory, between the Sunday services, to consider how to live intentionally by creating a Personal Rule of Life. Just bring yourself!

Children & Youth Ministry

On Sunday March 13, The Rev. Anna Sutterisch, Canon for Christian Formation will be at St. Peter's to preach and meet with the congregation, especially families with children and young adults. She hopes to inspire us as we plan our children and youth programs. Please stay after the service to hear her and ask questions.

Lenten Devotions

The Sanctuary for Lent 2022 contains brief reading for each day in Lent, from Ash Wednesday through Easter. This includes a scripture passage, a short devotion, and a short prayer. Share your Lenten journey as you prepare to experience the joy of the Resurrection by picking up a copy of this devotional. The booklet is available at the back of the church and on the table by the back doors.

Brown Bag Lunch Series

Brown Bag BIBLE STUDY

The Brown Bag Lunch Series will continue each Thursday at noon throughout Lent. Each Thursday, Holy Eucharist and Bible study on the readings of the day will be discussed. This Brown Bag Series will be held in the Chapel of St. Peter's. Please bring a bag lunch! Everyone is welcome... please join us! Hope to see you there!

If it is your desire during the season of Lent to make your confession through the Rite of Reconciliation (BCP p.447) or if you would like to know more about this, please let me know and we can set a time to meet.

Blessed Lent
