Everything you need for worship can be accessed at

Welcome to St. Peter's! If you are attending services, please use the back glass door off the parking lot (where the elevator is located) or the front door to enter the church. At this time, the other two entrances will remain locked. If you need any assistance, please see one of the ushers or Tom Newman, St. Peter's Sexton. Masks are required for all unvaccinated persons in building at all times. Thank you for your cooperation.

To be more inclusive of our Parishioners who attend the 10 am service via Livestream, we are going to dispense with showing the stained-glass window during communion in favor of showing the distribution of the sacrament of communion in the middle aisle.

This means if you receive communion in the center aisle your image will be shown walking to communion and receiving the sacrament. By receiving communion in the center aisle, you will be deemed to have consented to your image being shown on the Livestream.

If you do not want your image to be shown, you will have the option of receiving communion in the right aisle (facing the altar), which is out of the screenshot of the Livestream. Communion in the right aisle will take place after distribution of communion in the middle aisle.

Easter is a wonderful time to begin our lives as Christians! For anyone considering baptism, whether for an infant, a child or as an adult, remember that the day when we celebrate the great mystery of Jesus' Resurrection is one of the principal days in the Church calendar for Holy Baptism. If you are interested, please contact me to discuss this.

"The baptized community lives in that mystery, drawn out of chaos, breathing in the wind of the Spirit and hearing from God the words that he speaks to his only Son: 'You can call me Father'. (Being Christian, p.18 by Rowan Williams)
