Welcome to St. Peter's! If you are attending services, please use the back glass door off the parking lot (where the elevator is located) or the front door to enter the church. If you need any assistance, please see one of the ushers or Tom Newman, St. Peter's Sexton. Masks are required for all unvaccinated persons in building at all times. Thank you for your cooperation.

Parents, if you wish to bring little ones to church, the care room is open every week. Children are also encouraged to sit in their special area in the front of the church on the carpet. Older children who would like to come to church are always welcome. We have activity bags at the back of the church with things to do based on the message of the day.

Bellwether
— FARM —
CAMP · RETREAT · EDUCATION CENTER

April Outreach Focus of the Month: Bellwether Farm

The April Outreach Focus of the Month is our own camp, retreat, and educational center for the Diocese of Ohio - Bellwether Farm. Its vision and mission, in part, is to “promote physical and spiritual wellness and fidelity to the environment while providing a sacred space that awakens our senses to all that is possible in God’s creation and live more lightly on the earth.” To that end, Bellwether is a working farm with sheep, goats, chickens, bees, pigs and a horse! All meals at the center are served farm to table with all the appropriate recycling/sustainability practices. During the warmer months, guests are encouraged to help Farmer Brian Conley gather the very food they will eat while at the farm. Be prepared to be served the most delicious meals!

Located in Wakeman, OH along the Vermillion River, Bellwether is an idyllic setting for young ones to enjoy a camp experience. The lake on the property provides the opportunity for swimming, canoeing, and fishing. Campers stay in beautiful wooden cabins nestled in the gorgeous woods that surround the center. Those woods provide miles of hiking, foraging, and exploration. Campers also enjoy the fellowship surrounding campfires, music, arts and crafts, and worship. They too will participate in farm life through harvesting their own food and animal life. Please visit <http://Bellwetherfarm.com> to learn more about the camp offerings.

Bellwether’s doors are by no means only open to the youth of the diocese! Congregants across the diocese come to enjoy spiritual programming, retreats, and other workshops throughout the year. The Grange (main gathering space and dining hall) has beautiful conference rooms fully operational with technology for meetings. Overnight accommodations are provided in fully furnished cabins for double and single occupancy. The worship barn overlooks the woods and therefore offers a peaceful and picturesque setting for spiritual gatherings. The website lists all the current special programming Bellwether has to offer. St. Peter’s vestry has always looked forward to and enjoyed their annual retreat at Bellwether.

Walk away from your busy lives and escape to the gorgeous landscape of Bellwether Farm!

SPECIAL NOTE: Please continue to keep Bellwether Farm in your prayers following the tragic fire that leveled the animal barn and took the lives of numerous sheep and the beloved cows. Let’s all pray for a speedy rebuild.

Quarterly Statement

were mailed last week; please check your statement, and if there is a discrepancy, contact the office. We appreciate your generosity and continued support of St. Peter's and its ministries.

It takes quite a few hands to organize and run the Sunday worship services. From the Chancel Guild to the readers to the acolytes to the ushers, we count on folks to assist in every way on Sunday morning. This is a case where it truly does take the village to raise the event.

The next Worship Rota will be created in the coming weeks. If you do NOT want to continue serving, please contact the office immediately and we will remove you from the rota.

That said, we are in need of acolytes, chalciers, ushers, and bell ringers, especially for the 8:00 a.m. service. If you would like to participate in this very gratifying ministry, please contact the office at 216-226-1772 or via email at office@stpeterslakewood.org.

The rota will be mailed prior to the end of May. We appreciate your time and willingness to serve.
