

Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost

September 20, 2026

Proper 20

*St. Peter's Episcopal Church
Lakewood, Ohio*

WELCOME TO SAINT PETER'S CHURCH!

St. Peter's aspires to be a welcoming, nurturing, and joyful Episcopal Church—open to all without exception, growing together in faith as we follow the way of Christ, and committed to the Spirit's formation in ourselves, our community, and our world through God's love.

This leaflet contains everything you need for worship this morning.

LIVESTREAM begins at 9:50 a.m., and the service at 10:00 a.m.

The service can be found on the Saint Peter's YouTube page at:

<https://tinyurl.com/StPeterLS>

NAME TAGS can be found at the end of every pew. PLEASE, wear one! Whether you've been attending here 50 years, or 50 minutes, it helps everyone get to know one another!

IF YOU'RE NEW this morning, please take a moment to fill out one of the little cards at the end of the pew rack and place it in the alms basin at the offering. Or, sign our guestbook by the tower door on your way out. We want to welcome you properly.

A WORD ABOUT OFFERINGS: Loose cash and coins put in our offering plates on Sundays are used to fund important ministries in the wider community. If you prefer your cash offerings go to church operations, or if you wish a tax receipt, you must put your offerings in an envelope and supply your name. Envelopes for this purpose can be found at the end of every pew.

A WORD ABOUT COMMUNION: We offer bread and wine during Holy Communion. We believe that we receive the full benefit of the sacrament in one kind. If you wish to take the wine also, you may drink from the large chalice or do this by intinction, by gently touching the wafer to the wine in the small chalice.

RESTROOMS are located between the church and the chapel off the narthex.

CHILDREN: Children are welcome to attend the service; activity sheets are available at the back of the church for your use. Children are also welcome on the carpet in the front of the church to participate in an activity and be part of the service. Please linger after the service. Coffee hour takes place following the 10:00 a.m. service in the Narthex during the regular program year. In the summer lemonade is served on the plaza.

• Gluten-free wafers are available – please alert the priest

The Holy Eucharist

Preparation for Worship

The Church bell will peal 10 minutes before the Liturgy begins.

Prelude Choral with interludes Courtland Palmer (1872-1951)

Entrance Hymn 522 Glorious things of thee are spoken Austria

The Liturgy of the Word

The people standing, the Celebrant says

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Congregation says the Gloria at 8:00. The Congregation sings the Gloria at 10:00.

Gloria S280 Robert Powell

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,

Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons The people sit

Lector A Reading from the Book of Exodus

The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. The Israelites said to them, “If only we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

Then the Lord said to Moses, “I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not. On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days.” So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, “In the evening you shall know that it was the Lord who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and in the morning you shall see the glory of the Lord, because he has heard your complaining against the Lord. For what are we, that you complain against us?” And Moses said, “When the Lord gives you meat to eat in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, because the Lord has heard the complaining that you utter against him—what are we? Your complaining is not against us but against the Lord.”

Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, ‘Draw near to the Lord, for he has heard your complaining.’” And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud. The Lord spoke to Moses and said, “I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the Lord your God.’”

In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, “It is the bread that the Lord has given you to eat.”

(Exodus 16:2-15)

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Congregation says (8:00) the Psalm; the Choir sings (10:00) the Psalm

Psalm 105:37-45

37 He led out his people with silver and gold; *
in all their tribes there was not one that stumbled.

38 Egypt was glad of their going, *
because they were afraid of them.

39 He spread out a cloud for a covering * and a fire to give light in the night season.

40 They asked, and quails appeared, *
and he satisfied them with bread from heaven.

41 He opened the rock, and water flowed, *
so the river ran in the dry places.

42 For God remembered his holy word *
and Abraham his servant.

43 So he led forth his people with gladness, *
his chosen with shouts of joy.

44 He gave his people the lands of the nations, *
and they took the fruit of others' toil,

45 That they might keep his statutes *
and observe his laws.

Hallelujah!

Lector A Reading from Philippians

To me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well-- since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have. (Philippians 1:21-30)

The Celebrant reads the Gospel first saying:

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace; and he said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.' So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, 'Why are you standing here idle all day?' They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard.' When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.' When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?' So the last will be first, and the first will be last." (Matthew 20:1-16)

The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. John Keller

The Nicene Creed The people stand.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit, he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Intercessor: We come to you joyously, O Lord, with prayers of praise and thanksgiving. We come to you humbly to offer petitions for this world, for this community of faith, and for ourselves. May the light of your love shine through us as we go about our daily lives.

Fill our heart with love for you.

People: Be with us always.

Intercessor: We pray for our world, may we be faithful caretakers of your creation. Grant us the wisdom and will to be good stewards of its bounty and beauty.

We pray especially for the leaders of the world whose decisions affect all peoples, all living things, and even the health of our homes.

Fill our heart with love for you.

People: Be with us always.

Intercessor: We pray for the hungry of the world: for the dispossessed, the abused, and the lonely. We pray for the sick and suffering. Give them the comfort of your presence to ease the pain of their afflictions. Today we pray for parishioners on our prayer list, especially Al, Sara, Matt, Hilary, Dave, Brad, Marci, Michael, John, Joe, Moira, Lois, Paul, Bob, J, Ernie & Cindy, Ray, Pat, Jim & Linda, Clinton & Marcie, and MCJ [You are invited, either silently or aloud, to offer your prayers]. Show us ways to offer that comfort, to ease pain and soothe fears.

Fill our heart with love for you.

People: Be with us always.

Intercessor: We pray for your church, that we might find pathways to common mission. We pray for the Archbishop of Canterbury, Sarah; our Presiding Bishop, Sean; for Anne our Bishop; for Mike, John and Nancy, our priests, for the staff, vestry and leaders of the parish, and for all the baptized people of God.

Fill our heart with love for you.

People: Be with us always.

Intercessor: We pray for those who have died. We know that they are still precious in your sight, but we miss them. We ask comfort for mourners, that they may smile through their tears as they remember other times of laughter and joy. [You are invited, either silently or aloud, to offer your prayers].

Fill our heart with love for you.

People: Be with us always.

Intercessor: Let us now offer our own prayers and thanksgivings, in silent communion with God, or aloud to pray with and for one another.

Fill our heart with love for you.

People: Be with us always.

Intercessor: We thank you, Lord, for your love. Especially the gift of the mystery of your life, death, resurrection and ascension. We thank you for the people who have inspired us to do more than we thought ourselves capable. Joyously we thank you for the gift of life, and ask your guidance as we live it.

Fill our heart with love for you.

People: Be with us always.

The priest will now offer a closing collect.

Celebrant: O God, in Christ you have shown us how to offer compassion when others wrong us, generosity in giving us grace, and a model of faithfulness in service. Let your love always be our light and motivation in our life of faith. Be with us all, evermore. Amen.

Confession of Sin

The Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution

The Celebrant says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

All now greet one another in the name of the Lord

The Announcements – John Rich

The Liturgy of the Table

Offertory Anthem

Most glorious Lord of life, that on that day,
Didst make thy triumph over death and sin:
And having harrow'd hell, didst bring away
Captivity thence captive, us to win:
This joyous day, dear Lord, with joy begin,
And grant that we for whom thou diddest die,
Being with thy dear blood clean wash'd from sin,
May live for ever in felicity.
And that thy love we weighing worthily,
May likewise love thee for the same again:
And for thy sake, that all like dear didst buy,
With love may one another entertain.
So let us love, dear love, like as we ought,
Love is the lesson which the Lord us taught.

Let us break bread together

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In union, O Lord, with the faithful at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, we desire to offer you our praise and thanksgiving. We present to you our soul and body with the earnest knowledge that we are always united to you in our baptism. And since today we cannot now receive you sacramentally, we ask you to join our hearts with all who faithfully receive this day. May we live forever in your love. Amen.

The minister receives the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the people. The ushers will direct you to the high altar to receive the Holy Eucharist.

If you are unable to go to the high altar, please notify an usher and the Eucharist will be brought to you. At the altar you are invited to kneel or stand to receive.

The Sending of the Eucharistic Minister

Celebrant I send you forth bearing these holy gifts that those who receive them may share with us in the communion of the Body and Blood of Christ.

People We, who are many, are one body because we share one bread and one cup.

The Eucharistic minister departs.

All stand.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Peter's

<CHOIR>

If you have been thinking about joining the St. Peter's Choir this article is for you!

Rehearsals began on Thursday, September 10th at 7:00 p.m. in the New Chapel. The choir sings weekly at the 10 o'clock service, September – May.

The Sunday morning rehearsals begin at 9:15 a.m. in the church. While new singers are welcome at any time, the beginning of the choir season is definitely the best time to join.

No audition is necessary, but an ability to read music is definitely helpful. If you are interested in joining the choir, please send an email to Bryan Mitnaul, organist and choirmaster at yabchbryan@gmail.com

The Adult Forum and Bible Study at 9:09 a.m. will not take place this Sunday. Fr. Mike will resume class next Sunday, 27 September.

COMMUNITY MEAL

Are you ready for some early Christmas spirit? Last year, the parish generously contributed groceries and gift cards so that we could provide each of our December community meal diners with a bag full of shelf-ready foods. Mindful of the continuing escalating prices in groceries, we would like to do that again this year and start the collection earlier.

When you are grocery shopping from now until the beginning of December, if possible, I ask that you pick up an extra item each time for the Christmas gifts and drop it off in the Community Meal container inside the parking lot vestibule. We are looking for hearty soups, chili, boxed dinners, canned fish, peanut butter, instant coffee, and other staples.

We also would like to give $10 gift cards from Giant Eagle, Aldi, or Marc's. If you want to contribute a gift card, please direct it to Tom Newman in the church office. I'm also happy to pick up your donations if needed.

Thanks in advance for adding Community Meal to your grocery shopping list for the next few months!

Change in date for the Bishop's visitation

We are writing to share an important update regarding our upcoming Confirmation service and the Bishop's visit. Due to an unavoidable diocesan scheduling conflict, the Bishop's visit and Confirmation liturgy have been rescheduled from September 6 to Sunday, December 6. We know how eagerly our community looks forward to this special day, and we sincerely apologize for any inconvenience or disruption this shift may cause to your family's plans.

Please know that Michelle and Fr. Mike are working closely with all of our youth and adult confirmands to adjust our preparation journey so everyone stays fully supported and on track. We hold each of our candidates in prayer during this season of preparation, and we look forward to gathering together in December to celebrate their faith and welcome our Bishop.

Thank you for your understanding on this change.

Blessings,

Mike

PLEASE SEE THE NURSERY SIGN-UP SHEET

Annika our fine state's BIGGEST BUCKEYE FAN will be with the Buckeye's most of this football season and we'll need YOU to help fill in the gaps. A sign-up sheet is in the narthex and with Michelle.

Sunday, October 11, 2026, during Coffee Hour.

All are invited to celebrate the McParland Baby. Please join us in "Sprinkling" Olivia McParland's pregnancy.

We need donations of diapers in all sizes and gift cards. Please make donations to the office, Michelle Killin-Keith, or Kim Lager by October 4th. A more delicious and abundant coffee hour will be held in the chapel. We hope you can join us in this exciting celebration of a new baby joining our parish.

Update on Anglican Pilgrimages

The Anglican Identity and Heritage Pilgrimage is filling up, but we have room for more! We currently have 21 deposits and an extension until September 10th to have new registrations postmarked. Brochures are at the back of the church. We will have an organizational meeting soon!

The St. Cuthbert Way Pilgrimage will need to be cancelled as we did not meet our minimum level of participants.

Thank you all for your energy and excitement on this 2027 Pilgrimage!
